23rd Annual Insurance Professional of the Year 2019 Albany I-Day

Nominations are now being accepted for the 23rd Annual Insurance Professional of the Year. If you would like to nominate an insurance professional to receive this award at I-Day on Wednesday, May 15, 2019, please complete the bottom portion of the form and return by April 15, 2019.

Criteria to be reviewed by the Award Committee include the following, however, other important contributions by the nominee will be considered as well. Nominations are open to any person actively involved in the insurance industry. No I-Day committee members will be eligible for this award.

The nominee should provide a positive, professional image:

- a) Contributes to the community at large
- b) Contributes time to insurance related organizations
- c) Participation in continuing education
- d) Willingness to share knowledge
- e) Demonstrates leadership

The committee will contact the nominees and nominators to discuss the credentials.

In order to be consistent with our mission of service to the community; the award recipient will be receiving a check to donate to their favorite charity.
