16th Annual Insurance Professional of the Year Award Albany I-Day 2012

Nominations are now being accepted for the 16th Annual Insurance Professional of the Year Award. If you would like to nominate an insurance professional to receive this award at the 2012 I-Day, please complete the bottom portion of the form and return by April 15, 2012.

Criteria to be reviewed by the Award Committee include the following, however, other important contributions by the nominee will be considered as well.

Nominations are open to any person actively involved in the insurance industry.

The nominee should provide a positive, professional image:

- a) Contributes to the community at large
- b) Contributes time to insurance related organizations
- c) Participation in continuing education
- d) Willing to share knowledge
- e) Demonstrates leadership

The committee will contact the nominees and nominators to discuss credentials, and the Award will be presented at the Albany I-Day, May 2, 2012.

**This year, in order to be consistent with our mission of service to the community, the award recipient will be receiving a check to donate in the name of their favorite charity.

**Please note that no I-Day committee members will be eligible for this award.
